PAY OF THE SUPERVISORS.

A short time ago Alderman Monheimer de-landed from the Comptroller his pay as Super-isor of the county, which the latter refused to rant, under the plea that an Alderman cannot rener demurred and sued out a mandamus terday he received the money pursuant to the Pay Joseph R. Monbeimer, or order, $33 33, for salary a Supervisor of County of New York, as per writ of per-mptory mandamus issued by the Supreme Court Sep-ember 14, 1873, and affirmed by General Term of Supreme ourt, October 14, 1873.

As soon as it was known that the Supervisor was paid the Comptroller's office became at once a Mecca to which the "County Fathers" migrated in quest of their to be allotted stipend. But the Comptroller did not allow his pilgrims to worship at his shrine worth a cent, and held the demand made upon him under consideration. Supervisor Monheimer also became emboidened by his success in receiving his May and June pay, and made a formal demand for his salary for the months of July, August and September, which the Comptroller peremptorily relused to pay without an order from the Court.

STREET BOYS PLAYING WITH PISTOLS. The Recent Shooting Casualty in Worth Street-Four Boys Sent to the

The case of John Fitzgerald, the laborer, who was killed in Worth street, near Mission place, on head by a stray bullet from a pistol in the hands of a gang of boys who were amusing themselves by ng at a mark, was yesterday investigated belore Coroner Kessler. Several of the boys, who had been secured by Captain Kennedy, of the Sixth precinct, and other witnesses were examined, but no testimony could be obtained to show which of them fired the latal shot. After listening to the evidence, the jury found "that deceased came to his dead by a pistol shot wound at the hands of one or more of a lawless gang of boys, censisting of Henry Bolet, John Shea, Joseph Saville and John Mullen, on October 15, 1873. And that, while they severely condemn and denounce the practice of boys shooting in the streets, they hold the vender or venders of dangerous weapons to boys responsible and punishable."

There being no testimony upon which to convict the boys to the Tombs, they will be sent to the House of Detention, from which their friends can secure their discharge. ore Coroner Kessler. Several of the boys, who

A CADEMY-ERNANI. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24.

A TWELFTH SUBSCRIPTION NIGHT OF THE STRAKOSCH TIALIAN OPEIA COMPANY, FRIDAY EVENING, Oct. M., at 8 o'clock.

Messes, MAURICE AND MAX STRAKOSCH respectfully inform the subscribers and patrons of the Opera at the Academy that in de'erence to the generally expressed wish for a repetition of Verdi's grand Opera, one more performance will be given of ANI.

on Friday evening, Oct. 24, at 8, with the same brilliant cast as before, viz. — Mile. Ostava Torriant Ernant. — Signor Campanhin Don Carlos. — Signor Maurel Don Ruy Gomez de Silva. — Signor Naunett Musica: Director and Conductor — Signor Naunett Musica: Director and Conductor — Signor Naunett Musica: Director and Conductor — Signor Naunett Suscensification of the New York press. The New York HERALD Says: —The universal opinion was that a better representation of "Ernani" has not been given since the Academy of Music was founded. When every detail is attended to, from the cast down to the chorus, there can be nothing short of bearty commendation of the impressario who ventures upon such an experiment. It is rare that a critic cannot pick a liaw in an operatic performance.

The New YORK TIMES says:—An admirable repan operatic performance. MES says:—An admirable representation of verility. Ernant, was given at the Addention of Verility. Ernant, was given at the Addention of Wassat evening. It was can account only for its peneral evening. It was can account only for its peneral evening the performance which can intribute the most impressive of the season. The symmetry of the recital was the result of the assumption of all the important characters by thorough artists, and of the faultless work of the orchestra and chorus.
